

Bitten Thorgaard Sørensen
Deputy Director General

Prior to joining the Danish Competition and Consumer Authority as Deputy Director General in 2013, Bitten worked 10 years in private practice with the Danish law firm Gorrissen Federspiel where she advised clients on all aspects of EU and Danish competition law. From 2007 to 2008, Bitten was a foreign associate with Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York. She was also an external senior lecturer in competition law at the University of Copenhagen for several years.