

Tamas Andras Molnar
Adviser of DG Justice and Consumers of the European Commission

Tamas joined the consumer directorate of the European Commission ten years ago. He is an Adviser on International Consumer issues covering OECD, United Nations, bilateral contacts with countries of the European Neighbourhood Policy (MENA area and CIS states) and other strategic partners of the European Union.

Earlier he headed a unit that managed the implementation of the Consumer Protection Cooperation Regulation (EC 2006/2004) and the European Consumer Centres network.

Tamas also has more than a decade long managerial experience in business management – mainly finance related. He is economist by education, MBA graduate and holder of a CPA equivalent licence in accounting and taxation.