

Zoltán Hegymegi-Barakonyi

President of the Hungarian Competition Law Association

Dr. Zoltán Hegymegi-Barakonyi is the managing partner of the Hegymegi-Barakonyi and Partner Baker & McKenzie Attorneys-at-Law, where he also co-heads the competition law practice group. He is experienced in cartel, dominant position and merger control cases, having represented several international and Hungarian companies before the Hungarian Competition Office and the European Commission, as well as before Hungarian and EU courts. Prior to joining Baker McKenzie in 1994, he worked for the Hungarian Competition Office and completed an internship at the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the US Department of Justice. He is a non-governmental advisor to the International Competition Network (ICN), Chairman of the Hungarian Competition Association and the First Vice-President of the International Competition League (LIDC). He is a member of the Scientific Board of the Competition Law Research Institute at Pázmány Péter Catholic University, where he is also a lecturer in the post-graduate competition law program.