

Wojciech Dorabialski

Director of Department of Competition Protection at the Polish Competition Authority

Wojciech Dorabialski graduated from the Warsaw School of Economics with an M.A. in Quantitative Methods, obtained a Ph.D. in Economics from Rice University in Houston. He taught Game Theory, Industrial Organization and Microeconomics at the Graduate School of Business Economics and at Warsaw University. In 2007 he joined the Market Analyses Department at UOKiK and currently serves as a Director of Competition Protection Department. He is an author of several publications in the field of competition protection, a member of the Polish Competition Law Association and a member of the board of Centre for Economic Analysis (CenEA).